

NGUYEN THI KIM ANH is an ASPBAE Executive Council member representing South East Asia. She is currently the National Coordinator of VAEFA - Vietnam Association for Education For All. She holds an International Master's Degree in Development Studies from the Graduate Institute of International Relations and Development Study in Geneva, Switzerland. She has been working in the development sector for over 17 years in education, migration, trafficking, women, and labour rights issues with international NGOs including The Vietnam Children's Fund and Oxfam Quebec.

